

HEY girls

Are you ready for the ultimate brain boost and empowerment party!

Imagine a vibe where all the coolest, most inspiring leaders in education are sharing their wisdom, dropping knowledge bombs, and helping you level up your game. It's not just another snoozefest. You'll be soaking up incredible info on how to slay in the world of education, make a real impact, and maybe even sprinkle some glitter on those textbooks. Plus, it's a total girl power moment, and who doesn't want to be surrounded by fierce, smart women making waves?

Grab your notebooks, bring those positive vibes, and join us at the WELL Summit to become the next boss babes in education!

We have 20 VIP passes for our future female leaders. Details on the next page!

The WELL Summit is March 12 in Bloomington-Normal, Illinois and was created to empower, connect, inspire, support, celebrate and develop women in educational leadership.

Thanks to several generous donors, we are giving VIP passes to 20 high school students to attend the Summit. Encourage a student in your school or district to apply.
