

ASPIRING SCHOOL LEADER NETWORK

For Aspiring School Leaders

About the Aspiring Network

IPA's Aspiring School Leader Network (ASLN) brings together teacher leaders, principal prep program participants and individuals with leadership credentials who have yet to begin a leadership role. The goal of the IPA Aspiring School Leader Network is to establish the mindset, leadership intelligences, and community of peers necessary for aspiring administrators to envision themselves as future learning leaders. For more information about the program, visit <https://ilprincipals.org/grow/leader-networks/aspiring-school-leader-network>.
